Quality Policy

HEXONATE is commited for the delivery of afordable and quality product to patient and custmer, a fundamental element of our company's mission and vision.

- Hexonate Pharma maintains a compliance on quality regulation, codes and standards for its manufacturing sites, including effective over sights of contract manufacturing sites.
- Deliver high quality product that consumers can trust.
- Continuous improvement and inovation to improve our facilities, products, processes and procedures.
- All employees have the appropriate education, training, skills and experience to carry out their work competently.

Hexonate quality policy is to create a sustainable quality culture for continual improvement. Our performance is regularly reviewed to ensure expectations of high quality standards for our patients custmers.